

Nova Scotia writer and director William D. MacGillivray was awarded a 2013 Governor
General's Award in the Visual and Media Arts.

Nova Scotian Anna Leonowen's story The King and I has been filmed as a live action drama, a musical and an animated film.

The film's title Long Time Running takes its name from "Long Time Running", a song from the band's 1991 album Road Apples.

